GLOBE SIGHTS AND SILVER BELTLETS

Important News of Busy Globe Told in Briefs

H. J. Donnelly, foreman at the Gibson mine, is in the city from Bellevue. Fred C. Griffen of Griffen Brothers is in the city from his ranch on Cherry creek.

Frank L. Tompkins left yesterday for a trip to the mine of the Central Copper company near the Gibson.

H. B. Johnson of Tucson arrived in the city yesterday to take a position in the general offices of the G. V. G. & N.

Thomas Kavanaugh and family will leave this morning for their home at Kelvin after spending several days in Globe.

Lamar Cobb, ex-legislator from Graham county and now county surveyor of that county, is in the city from Clifton on mining business.

Tom Henderson is in from the Griffen Brothers ranch near Roosevelt and leaves this morning for Phoenix, where he will get a carload of cattle.

General Manager McCarthy of the Globe Consolidated returned last evening from El Paso, where he transacted business for his company.

Robert Feland, who has been confined to a bed at the Old Dominion hospital for three weeks with typhoid malaria, was able to be out yesterday and will be discharged from the hospital today.

Mrs. J. N. Porter and daughter, Miss Stella, arrived in the city last evening from Dallas, Texas, to spend a month with President Porter of the First National bank. Mr. Porter met them at Bowie.

Bill Sparks, formerly ranger sergeant and a candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket last fall, is spending a few days in the city. Mr. Sparks is now in the Indian service on the San Carlos reservation.

John J. Habecker, one of the principal officials of the Giant King Mining company, which recently acquired the old Centennial silver mine northeast of Globe, arrived in the city last evening from Philadelphia.

O. Evans Mikesell of Washington, Pa., who spent several days in Globe writing up the camp for eastern papers, left yesterday for Phoenix via Roosevelt. He will go to Prescott and Congress in Yavapai county.

J. B. Newman returned yesterday from a week spent in the Dripping Springs district and at Christmas. He reports considerable mining activity at both places. At Dripping Springs many important deals have recently been made.

Nelson Cooper, colored, who for some time was employed at Keegan's, died last evening at his home across Pinal creek of consumption. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the undertaking establishment of F. L. Jones & Son.

D. D. Sullivan, the prosperous Globe mining man and promoter, returned last evening from a trip to northern Cochise county. He states that there are a number of good shippers in the Dragon district, of which little is known, and that the district promises to be a very successful one.

M. O. Bicknell, formerly superintendent of the Maricopa & Phoenix railroad, who was recently promoted to the post of general freight and passenger agent of all the Randolph lines, arrived in the city last evening to take a look at Globe. Mr. Bicknell is well known among Globe railroad men, who are pleased to see his good qualities so well recognized.

COPPER METAL MARKET

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 12.—Copper in London made a sharp break, spot being 3 1/2 lower at 84 1/2, and futures three pounds lower at 85 1/2. Locally the market was very unsettled and quotations can hardly be given better than nominal. Some big producers are holding prices up to nearly the recent high figures, quoting Lake at 25.50 and Electrolytic at 25.00, but other large dealers say these prices can not be maintained. Lake may be quoted at 24.00 to 25.00, Electrolytic at 23.50 to 24.50, and Casting at 22.50 to 23.00. Lead was 6d lower at 19 1/2 3d in the London market, but remained unchanged at 6.00 to 6.10 locally. Spelter was dull at 6.75 to 6.80 locally, but declined to 22 1/2 1/2 in London. Iron was 6d lower at 33s 6d for standard foundry. Locally iron was unchanged. Bar silver, 65%. Mexican dollars, 50 1/2.
